

HELD UP ON STREETS
BY MARRYING FOOTPADS
Two Men Robbed of Watches and Cash, Third Escapes by Outcry.

Mrs. Nellie Ragsdale, Visitor in City, Knocked Down and Robbed by Colored Boy.

Three persons were held up on the streets last night by two unidentified white highwaymen, who with drawn revolvers enforced their demands for cash. Harry I. Burns, 304 1st street northwest, was robbed of a watch and 65 cents in cash, while Frank Helse, 311 F street northeast, surrendered his watch and a stick pin. James E. Sexton, 153 A street northeast, the third man threatened by the highwaymen, made an outcry and saved his property. The three hold-ups occurred between 11 and 11:45 o'clock. Burns, who was the first victim, was in front of No. 19 I street northwest, opposite Gonzaga College, when suddenly the highwaymen halted him, pointed a pistol at him and demanded his valuables. No masks were worn by the robbers, Burns said, and he was able to get a good look at them.

No Time for Parley.

When Burns saw the glistering barrel of the pistol pointed at him he felt that there was no time for parleying. No other pedestrians were near enough to him to respond to any call he might make, he said, and he deemed discretion the better part of valor. He preferred to give up his timepiece and small amount of cash rather than chance getting shot.

The incident was over in a few seconds, and Burns sought the police of the sixth precinct to tell them of the robbery. He was able to give a good description of the footpads, and said he felt sure he could identify them.

It was about twenty minutes after Burns was robbed when Frank Helse, who lives at home, was held up at a point only a short distance from Union station. The sight of a pistol had the effect of enforcing his silence. All the robbers wanted was jewelry and cash; if they could not get both they were satisfied with one.

Helse was deprived of his watch, worth $10, and a cheap stick pin, but no cash. The highwaymen, who were dressed in the garb of the underworld, became alarmed at the approach of other persons and left Helse before he had finished the task of going through his pockets. Helse told the police of the ninth precinct of the occurrence.

Street Brightly Lighted.

Sexton was at 2d and A streets northeast about 11:45 o'clock when the two highwaymen stopped him, pointed a weapon at him and made a demand for his valuables. The street opposite Congressional Library, where Sexton was halted, was brightly lighted, and East Capitol street and Pennsylvania avenue, the principal thoroughfares in that section, were not far away.

Quickly realizing that an outcry probably would attract assistance from one of the two thoroughfares, Sexton shouted lustily. This had the desired effect, he said, for the robbers left him and fled in the direction of the Capitol grounds. Sexton told the story of his exciting encounter to the police of the fifth precinct.

Detective Pratt, acting night chief of detectives, received the complaints from the stations, and promptly sent detectives out to make investigations. Descriptions of the two men were obtained, and the police of other cities were asked to assist in the search for them.

Because of the number of hold-ups and cases of pocketbook snatching reported during the past month it is stated, Maj. Sylvester may increase the number of men on duty at night, and probably will have members of the detective corps perform special night duty.

Woman Knocked Down and Robbed.

Mrs. Nellie Ragsdale, Des Moines, Iowa, visiting friends in Woodley Park, was knocked down last night by a colored boy and robbed of $30 in cash and five traveler's checks for $20 each. Mrs. Ragsdale had been in the city during the afternoon, and about 6 o'clock she alighted from a car to go to the home of friends at 2806 Cathedral avenue, where she was visiting. When at Woodley road and 5th street Mrs. Ragsdale was met by the colored boy. The robbery was committed in front of the residence of C. H. St. John, 2701 Woodley road, and the outcries of Mrs. Ragsdale attracted the attention of Mrs. St. John, who hurried to the front door. She saw the colored boy just before he disappeared in the woods.

Trick of Swindlers.

"Not to be opened until Christmas" was written on three packages that were delivered to many residences yesterday by swindlers.

About 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon a young man appeared at the residence of Mrs. Annie O'Day, 326 2d street northeast, and delivered one of these so-called Christmas packages.

"Forty cents, please," he said, explaining that there was a charge of that amount for delivery.

Mrs. O'Day handed him a dollar bill to get changed. He left to get the change, but failed to return. Mrs. O'Day opened the package and found it contained nothing but the top of an earthen jar.

One hour later a man appeared at the house of Mrs. Rose Arden, 602 E street southeast, with a similar package and collected 40 cents. The package contained a jar and a lid.

Mrs. Alberta Wheeler, 416 3d street southeast, was the third victim. She paid 40 cents for old shoes and rags.

Thefts Reported.

Mrs. R. H. Lewis, 303 F street northwest, reported to the police the theft of $16 in cash. She stated that she was robbed while riding in an elevator in a department store yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. W. D. Morgan, North Capitol and M streets, told of the robbery of her mail box yesterday. A letter addressed to F. B. Morgan, she said, was abstracted from the box.

Bynum E. Hinton, 3615 14th street northwest, reported a robbery committed at his home last night. Entrance was gained through a rear door, he stated, and $12 taken from bureau drawers.

JOHN J. O'CONNOR DEAD.
Gunner's Mate of U. S. S. Louisiana Victim of Blood Poisoning.

John J. O'Connor, thirty-one years old, gunner's mate on the U. S. S. Louisiana, died yesterday afternoon at the Naval Hospital, Norfolk, Va. His death was due to blood poisoning, resulting from a shell falling on his foot about a week ago. Funeral services are to be held in this city tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of his brother, 1330 18th street northwest. The funeral will be military, and interment will be at Arlington.

Mr. O'Connor was a Washington boy. He was the son of Mrs. M. M. O'Connor and the late J. J. O'Connor. He had seen active service at Vera Cruz and during the Spanish-American war. His mother, two brothers and two sisters survive him.

On Trail of Corn Weevil.
Senator Sherman of Illinois has introduced a bill directing the secretary of Agriculture to ascertain if a dangerous weevil exists in corn imported to the United States and to take necessary steps to prevent it infecting domestic corn, if found to exist.
